Introduction

The purpose of the School District of West Salem Emergency Operations Plan (School EOP) is to identify and respond to incidents by outlining the responsibilities and duties of the School District of West Salem and its employees. Developing, maintaining, and exercising the plan empowers employees in an incident to act quickly and knowledgeably. The plan educates staff, faculty, students, and other key stakeholders on their roles and responsibilities before, during, and after an incident. This plan provides parents and other members of the community with assurances that the School District of West Salem has established guidelines and procedures to respond to incidents/hazards in an effective way.

The developed guidelines and procedures for dealing with existing and potential student and school incidents are defined in the plan below. The basic plan and the functional and hazard-specific annexes outline an organized, systematic method to mitigate, prevent, prepare for, respond to, and recover from incidents. Faculty and staff have been trained to assess the seriousness of incidents and respond according to these established procedures and guidelines. The School District of West Salem regularly schedules in-service training for faculty and staff.

Lastly, developing, maintaining, and exercising the School EOP increases the School District of West Salem's legal protection. Schools without established incident management procedures have been found liable for their absence. While no set of policies rules out the potential for legal problems, establishing procedures and guidelines on the best professional practices provides a margin of protection against liability.

Scope

The School District of West Salem Emergency Operations Plan outlines the expectations of staff roles and responsibilities; direction and control systems; internal and external communications plans; training and sustainability plans; authority and references as defined by local, State, and Federal government mandates; common and specialized procedures; and specific hazard vulnerabilities and responses/recovery.

Authority

Wis. Statutes 118.07 (4)

(a) Each school board and the governing body of each private school shall have in effect a school safety plan.

The on-site assessment shall include playgrounds, athletic facilities or fields, and any other property that is occupied by pupils on a regular basis.

(bm) A school safety plan shall include all of the following:

1. An individualized safety plan for each school building and facility that is regularly occupied by pupils. The individualized safety plan shall include any real property related to the school building or facility that is regularly occupied by pupils.

2. General guidelines specifying procedures for emergency prevention and mitigation, preparedness, response, and recovery.

3. Guidelines and procedures to address school violence and attacks, threats of school violence and attacks, bomb threats, fire, weather-related emergencies, intruders, parent-student reunification, and threats to non-classroom events, including recess, concerts and other performances, athletic events, and any other extracurricular activity or event.

4. The process for reviewing the methods for conducting drills required to comply with the plan.

(c) The school board or governing body of the private school shall determine which persons are required to receive school safety plan training and the frequency of the training. The training shall be based upon the school district's or private school's prioritized needs, risks, and vulnerabilities.

(cf) Upon the creation of a school safety plan under par. (a) and upon each review of a school safety plan under par. (d), a school board shall submit a copy of the most recent blueprints of each school building and facility in the school district to each local law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over any portion of the school district and to the office of school safety. Upon the creation of a school safety plan under par. (a) and upon each review of a safety plan under par. (d),

Wisconsin School Threat Assessment and Management Protocol (WSTAMP) Process Flowchart

Guide for the Wisconsin School Threat Assessment Management & Protocol Process

Guide for the Wisconsin School Threat Assessment and Management Protocol (WSTAMP) Process

1. Identify Concerning or Threatening Behavior

Personnel with knowledge of potential threat/concerning behavior must use professional discretion to determine if there is an IMMEDIATE threat/act of harm to self or others that warrants an emergency response (i.e., call 911) or a report to an administrator.

2. Take Action to Mitigate Threat

The safety of the school, the students, and the community are the priority consideration. Depending on the severity of the concern, initiating safety/emergency operation procedures to secure the school, student of concern, and warning of intended targets should occur prior to activating the threat assessment process. If at any time information suggests the need for law enforcement/medical assistance, that request should be made immediately AND prior to initiating any investigation/triage/inquiry/assessment.

3. Initiate Threat Assessment Triage

Every concerning or threatening behavior warrants consideration of the context in which the behavior occurred. At a minimum, two trained members of the BTAM Team should confer and determine if the available information warrants further action by the BTAM team. This decision and supporting considerations should be documented on the Threat Assessment Triage form.

4. If Warranted, Initiate Threat Assessment Inquiry

If further action is warranted, the team will initiate the inquiry process and begin further investigation. Next steps may include gathering information from a variety of sources. Sources may include, but are not required or limited to, the following: informal interviews, teacher survey, social media review, and record review. An analysis of the information will be conducted by at least two members of the BTAM Team to determine the level of concern the student poses. The team members will complete the Threat Assessment Inquiry form and make a Team recommendation about next steps.

If the team determines the individual appears to pose no/low level of concern, and identified needs can be addressed within existing structures, the team will proceed to develop an Intervention and Support Plan for Safety. If the team determines the individual appears to pose a medium/high level of concern, the team will complete a Full Threat Assessment. Roles for additional information gathering tasks will be assigned and a timeline for reconvening will be set. NOTE: If there is uncertainty about the level of concern the individual poses, advance to the Full Assessment to gather additional information.

Guide for the Wisconsin School Threat Assessment Management & Protocol Process

When determining the level of concern an individual poses, and whether additional information gathering is warranted, the following guidance is provided.

- Low Concern: poses a minimal risk of engaging in violent or other harmful behavior
- Medium Concern: available information indicates the possibility of harmful outcomes if current concerning behaviors are not adequately addressed. A full threat assessment should be considered when there is Medium Concern. If the team is unsure if a full Threat Assessment is needed, err on the side of caution and proceed to the full Assessment.
- High Concern: appears to pose serious risk of engaging in violence or other harmful behavior. A full Threat Assessment should be completed when there is High Concern.

5. When Warranted, Complete the Full Threat Assessment

If the BTAM team determines further action is warranted to fully understand the concerning behavior and develop an intervention and support plan for safety, it may be necessary to collect additional information and the team should proceed to a Full Assessment. Trained multidisciplinary members of the BTAM team should assign additional tasks and may utilize the following sources: formal structured interviews (i.e., subject, target, peers, staff, parent, and witnesses), comprehensive record review, and outside sources of information (i.e., law enforcement records, counseling services, social media, medical reports).

After additional data collection is complete, the BTAM Team will convene and analyze the information to determine the level of concern the student poses. Threat enhancers and threat mitigators will be identified, examined, and documented. The BTAM Team determines the level of concern posed by the student and proceeds to develop an Intervention and Support Plan for Safety.

6. Develop an Intervention and Support Plan for Safety

Regardless of the identified “level of concern” obtained following the inquiry or full assessment, the BTAM process is not concluded until an Intervention and Support Plan for Safety is developed. The information obtained as part of the assessment phase should be used to identify potential areas of needed intervention and support for the student of concern. The plan should include steps and strategies required to protect the school community (persons and property) from targeted violence and other harmful behavior. The Intervention and Support Plan for Safety will include developed strategies and interventions to be implemented throughout the intervention process (i.e., countermeasures, mitigators, treatment, discipline, positive supports).

Guide for the Wisconsin School Threat Assessment Management & Protocol Process

7. Monitor Support Management Plan/Revise as Needed

The Intervention and Support Plan for Safety is a dynamic document. Revision of the plan will be considered upon introduction of new information, failure of the plan to meet the intended safety needs, compliance/non-compliance with plan by student of concern or other reasons determined by the BTAM Team. The plan must include a specific date/time for follow-up by the team to monitor progress and specify the individual(s) responsible for implementation of interventions.

Wisconsin School Threat Assessment & Management Protocol Triage

Wisconsin School Threat Assessment and Management Protocol (WSTAMP)—Triage

NOTE: Wis. Stat. § 175.32(2): Any person who is a mandatory reporter under the child abuse statute, such as a nurse, a medical or mental health professional, a social worker, a school teacher, a school administrator, a school counselor, or any other school employee, or a police or law enforcement officer, is required to report, as described below, if that person, in good faith, believes that there is a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a student, school employee or the public, based on a threat regarding violence in or targeted against a school made by an individual seen in the course of the mandatory reporter's professional duties. The same applies to a member of the clergy unless the member of the clergy receives the information regarding the threat privately where, under the circumstances of the religion or tradition, the communication is expected to be kept private.

Wis. Stat. § 175.32(3): To "report" means, by telephone or in person, to immediately inform a law enforcement agency of the reasons why the reporter believes there is a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a student or school employee or the public.

Wis. Stat. § 175.32(5): Anyone who fails to report as required by law may be fined no more than $1000 or imprisoned for no more than 6 months or both.

This form is to be completed by trained Behavioral Threat Assessment and Management Team (BTAM) members. A minimum of two trained BTAM team members are required when completing the triage form. The triage process will be utilized for all reported or observed behavior that communicates a threat (any expression of intent to do harm, acting out violently against someone or something or being in possession of an instrument of harm), and/or when this behavior prompts concern for the student's safety or the safety (physical or psychological) of others. Primary purposes of the BTAM Triage process are to determine the need for additional investigative steps by the BTAM Team, and to mitigate the grievance or problem behavior.

Triage, Inquiry, Assessment and Case Management are all part of the BTAM process. The WSTAMP Process Flowchart specifies each step in the process.

The BTAM Inquiry process guides trained BTAM team members through the investigative steps of gathering information, determining the level of concern for a specific individual, and determining next steps. The guiding questions below are in line with existing research and BTAM best practices.

The BTAM process is case specific. Some cases may proceed to the full Assessment process, and others may result in the development of a management plan for a student of concern at the Inquiry phase. All cases must be monitored over time. New information or failure to comply with the case specific management plan may result in plan adjustments or in the initiation of a new Triage/ Inquiry/ Assessment process.

Incident Command System

The School District of West Salem intends to employ ICS in managing emergencies. ICS is both a strategy and a set of organizational arrangements for directing and controlling field operations. It is designed to effectively integrate resources from different agencies into a temporary emergency organization at an incident site that can expand and contract with the magnitude of the incident and resources on hand,

The incident commander is responsible for carrying out the ICS function of command-managing the incident. The four other major management activities that form the basis of ICS are operations, planning, logistics, and finance/administration. For small-scale incidents, the IC and one or two individuals may perform all of these functions. For larger incidents, a number of individuals from different local emergency response agencies may be assigned to separate staff sections charged with those functions.

In emergency situations where other jurisdictions or the state or federal government are providing significant response resources or technical assistance, it is generally desirable to transition from the normal ICS structure to a Unified Command structure. This arrangement helps to ensure that all participating agencies are involved in developing objectives and strategies to deal with the emergency.

Planning for Emergencies: Students with Disabilities and Other Special Needs

In an emergency, students with disabilities and other special needs may require assistance in functional areas including: maintaining independence, communication, transportation, supervision, and medical care. The required elements for IEPs as outlined in IDEA do not include any specific items related to emergency procedures for students with disabilities. However, nothing in IDEA prevents schools from developing individual emergency plans similar to an IEP. While there is no designated section in the IEP for individual emergency plans, this information can be included in the student's IEP under Related Services.

Preparedness/Protection

Developing an individual emergency plan should involve parents, teachers, paraprofessionals, first responders, and possibly the student. Students with other health disabilities should have an Emergency Health Information Document outlining their condition, emergency care, and current contact information. This document may be a tool schools can use when creating individual emergency plans.

Identifying Students and Staff with Special Needs

A key first step when developing individual emergency plans is identifying those students and staff members who may require special assistance in an emergency. For example, does the student or staff member have a physical disability that could hinder their ability to evacuate? How does a staff person who is deaf learn of a lockdown? When identifying students and staff who may require assistance, it is also important to consider students or staff with less obvious disabilities including; asthma, panic attacks, significant allergies, or heart conditions. Students with these needs may not have an IEP, but their condition may be known to the school nurse or classroom teacher. Including a question about special considerations on the student emergency card is one strategy schools can use to identify students who require additional assistance in an emergency.

Developing an Individual Emergency Plan

Once a student or staff members' needs have been identified, appropriate plans of action can be created and effective assistance identified. Confer with students or parents regarding their preferences for assistance in emergency situations whenever possible. Schools should also discuss evacuation preferences with local first responders and ensure they understand the needs of students with disabilities or other special needs. In some cases, it may be useful to provide training to first responders on various special needs and how those needs could impact a student's ability to follow emergency procedures. First responders may have equipment, expertise and strategies that could help schools as they make plans to assist those with special needs.

A similar planning process should be followed for developing plans for school staff with special needs. When developing plans for staff, it is important to discuss preferred or necessary supports or assistance. If possible, try to address necessary accommodations before an emergency occurs. For example, assigning staff with mobility impairments to offices or classrooms on the first floor eliminates the need for evacuating down a stairwell.

Finally, it is critical to include students with special needs in emergency drills and exercises. Regular practice ensures necessary assistance is provided to students with special needs and identifies possible gaps that can be corrected. Each student and staff member's individual emergency plan should be integrated into the school's emergency plan.

Preparedness/Protection

Considerations Specific to Evacuation Planning

Procedures and protocols for evacuating individuals with special needs should be developed with key school stakeholders and local first responders yearly. When evaluating options, schools should make decisions based on research, needs and preferences, and school staff capacity.

Interagency Agreements

Memoranda of understanding with any partner agencies, organizations or evacuation sites.

Drills

Per Wisconsin Statute 118.07(2)(a): Once each month, without previous warning, the person having direct charge of any public or private school shall drill all pupils in the proper method of departure from the building in case of a fire, except when the person having direct charge deems that the health of the pupils may be endangered by inclement weather conditions. At least twice annually, without previous warning, the person having direct charge of any public or private school shall drill all pupils in the proper method of evacuation to a safe location in case of a tornado or other hazard. At least twice annually, without previous warning, the person having direct charge of any public or private school shall drill all pupils in the proper method of evacuation or other appropriate action in case of a school safety incident. The public and private school safety drill shall be based on the school safety plan adopted under sub. (4). A safety drill may be substituted for any other drill required under this paragraph. The school board or governing body of the private school shall maintain for at least 7 years a record of each fire drill, tornado or other hazard drill, and school safety drill conducted.

Purpose

The purpose of drills is to demonstrate a school's commitment to prepare for crises, emergencies, and disasters. Drills test universal procedures (e.g. lockdowns, evacuation, shelter-in-place), build student and staff awareness, and provide training to students and staff. Drills are a crucial component of emergency planning and preparedness, but they are not the only component of testing a school's emergency plan.

Drills provide schools with the opportunities to:

- Test universal procedures
- Reveal weaknesses in procedures
- Improve response and coordination
- Clarify roles and responsibilities
- Improve individual performances

Preparedness/Protection

Planning for Drills

At the beginning of each school year schools should create a drill schedule. When scheduling drills, consider changing elements of drill scenarios by:

- Varying the times of drills
- Blocking evacuation routes
- Including a hazardous material scenario in a fire drill
- Hosting a community emergency response drill using a school emergency scenario

Documenting drills

Documentation is a necessary follow-up to every drill. It identifies steps for improving procedures and corrective actions to be implemented. Documentation includes, but is not limited to, drill logs and after-action reports.

Drill logs provide necessary documentation for compliance with statutory obligation. They are a record of the planned drill schedule and implementation dates. Other relevant information can also be recorded within the drill logs. A sample drill schedule and log are found in Appendix Q.

After action reports are a detailed analysis of the drills. The reports document the process; identify successes, challenges, and failures; and make recommendations. A sample after action report is found in Appendix O.

Planning for Student Reunification

When students are evacuated and cannot return to school, reunification with parents or guardians is top priority. Reunifying students and parents at an off-site location is a complex process. Successful reunification requires significant pre-planning, coordination and organization.

Planning for Reunification

Planning for reunification begins with identifying available staff to lead the reunification process. Staff without classroom duties including: office staff, student support services, administration and transportation are ideal choices to support the process. Members of the Building Safety Team, technology personnel and facility management staff may also play important roles in planning and leading the reunification. Ideally all staff should be trained on reunification procedures. Tabletop exercises may be used to test procedures with staff and identify potential gaps or complications.

Pre-selecting a reunification site

Several factors should be considered when selecting a reunification site. First evaluate the selected building's potential capacity to accommodate the student body, staff and parents. Parking must be adequate for parents picking up their children as well as restroom facilities, accessibility and building access control.

Preparedness/Protection

If the reunification site is not another district-owned building, a written agreement must be developed outlining school and facility responsibilities during a reunification. Schools should plan to have keys available for building access and a method for notifying the facility of an emergency requiring the building's use. It is ideal to designate one reunification site for the entire district with at least one additional site for backup.

Two reunification sites may be necessary if a single site will not accommodate the entire student body. When planning for two reunification sites, building administrators should pre-designate division of the student body and communicate plans to staff and communicate plans to staff, students and parents to minimize confusion.

Planning transportation and site set up

Transporting students to a reunification site during an emergency requires significant pre-planning and coordination. Staff responsible for setting up the reunification site should arrive before the students to organize. During reunification planning, schools should determine the number of students and staff requiring transportation and communicate this information to the transportation coordinator. Transportation for students with special needs must also be pre-arranged.

Transportation and arrival at a reunification site must be well-organized. Administrators should pre-determine classroom and staff organization to avoid confusion. Keeping staff with their classrooms increases accountability and may calm and reassure students.

Additional considerations for reunification site set-up:

- Designate parking areas for parents
- Determine separate entrances for students and parents if possible
- Designate holding area for students and staff - near restrooms if possible
- Put the check-in or registration close to parent entrance
- Find a separate place for counseling and medical follow-up
- Make signs for all locations and for traffic flow
- Pre-assign staff for reunification duties and locations

Reunification Process

Informing parents and guardians about reunification plans at the beginning of the school year helps ease anxiety in an emergency. Reunification information should be included in the student handbook. Inform parents where to pick up their child and what they will need to properly identify themselves. Ideally, children and parents will be segregated at the site until matched through the reunification process. If this is not possible, the process could be reversed to ensure a correct match using a check-out procedure. Plans must also be made for children who are not picked up in a timely manner.

Preparedness/Protection

Reunification materials and supplies

The most crucial aspect of reunification is getting the right children matched with the right parents or guardians. To ensure a smooth reunification process, schools must have the most current emergency contact information. Schools may want to ask parents to update emergency information more than once a year. Plans should also be made for instances when non-authorized individuals attempt to pick up students.

Administrative Go-Kits

Emergency go-kits are portable collections of emergency supplies and information. Go-kits often come in the form of backpacks, buckets or bags on wheels that can be easily taken out of school in case of an emergency. Supplies useful for reunification may be contained in an administrative go-kit. Consider including these items:

- Vests or hats for reunification staff
- Communication devices - for the registration area, student and parent holding sites, counselors, nurses, and student services staff
- Signs - pre-made and laminated
- Masking tape, duct tape, markers, pencils, pens
- Registration forms
- Maps of facility with significant areas designated

Response

Guidelines and procedures to address school violence and attacks, threats of school violence and attacks, bomb threats, fire, weather-related emergencies, intruders, parent-student reunification, and threats to non-classroom events, including recess, concerts and other performances, athletic events, and any other extracurricular activity or event.

Abduction/Unauthorized Removal of Student

Follow the actions below.

Preemptive/Supportive Actions

- The administrative assistant should have at their desk a list of students who are not to be released to anyone except a particular parent or guardian.
- The Student Enrollment/Emergency Data of such students should be tagged in Skyward.
- Before releasing a child to anyone except the parent or guardian on the list, the administrative assistant should check with the custodial parent and/or guardian for approval; a record of the time and date of phone approval should be made and kept.
- When a parent telephones the request that a child be released from school, the identity of the caller should be confirmed (by a separate call to the parent or guardian, if needed) before the child is permitted to leave. If there is any doubt, the message and phone number should be written down; a return call should be made after cross-checking the phone number with those on file in the child's folder or on the Student Emergency Data.

Teacher & Secretary

- Notify principal immediately
- Check Student's Skyward profile for legal custody.
- Phone police for emergency help. They will contact the parents as needed. Be able to document where and when student was last seen, a description of their clothing and close friends.

Principal's Office

- Speak calmly to abductor and attempt to detain
- Get license plate number
- Call 911
- Call school resource officer
- Call parent
- Consult with your Superintendent or designee
- Assist police
- Provide media information in consultation with District Designated Media Contact

Police Role

- Receive call from school
- Dispatch officers
- Police meet with school officials at predetermined location
- Locate and confront intruder
- Perform follow-up investigation if needed

NOTE: THE SUPERINTENDENT OR DESIGNEE SHOULD BE THE ONLY SOURCE OF INFORMATION TO THE PRESS.

Abuse/Neglect Reporting

Wisconsin state law requires that school personnel, who in the performance of their duties, encounter a child they suspect has been physically or sexually abused, is experiencing neglect or emotional damage, or is threatened with injury to report to the appropriate authorities. The person who observes the child is ultimately responsible for making the referral to Social Services or law enforcement officials and is liable if referral is not made. Anyone who in good faith is participating in the making of a report or is participating in an investigation pursuant to this section shall be immune from any liability.

When child abuse or neglect is suspected, follow this procedure and refer to Board Policy #8462 - Child Abuse and Neglect

Immediate Actions

The referring staff member and/or school counselor or school resource officer shall contact the La Crosse County Human Services Department, Child Protective Services Intake at (608) 784-4357. This referral shall be made as early in the day as possible so that a social worker from the La Crosse County Human Services Department has time to begin his/her investigation by interviewing the child at school.

The referring staff member informs their building principal or designee of referral as soon as possible (if principal is not already informed.)

Documentation

Each school district employee shall participate in a yearly training on this topic. For reporting procedures, please see Board Policy #8462 - Child Abuse and Neglect

Armed Intruder

Follow the actions below

Emergency Announcement

In the event of an active threat on school grounds (i.e., school shooter) a secretary or staff member from the Office will announce on the PA system “Active Threat, Active Threat, Active Threat”. If able, staff should give appropriate information on the PA regarding the type of threat, any description(s), and location(s) of what is occurring.

During an active threat situation, staff and students should utilize the following options outlined below as part of the Standard Response Protocol. It is crucial to note that one does not have to follow these procedures in any specific order.

HOLD:

IN YOUR CLASSROOM OR AREA. CLEAR THE HALLS.

A HOLD IS ANNOUNCED WHEN THE SCHOOL NEEDS TO KEEP THE HALLS OR ANOTHER AREA CLEAR OF STUDENTS. THIS COULD BE DUE TO A MEDICAL EMERGENCY, A DYSREGULATED INDIVIDUAL, AN ALTERCATION, OR ANOTHER SITUATION.

Principal

- Announce clearly and repeat: “Hold in your classroom or area. Clear the halls.” - pause - “Hold in your classroom or area. Clear the halls.”
- Activate Incident Command System, establish a command post, and delegate tasks to staff.
- Provide periodic updates to staff and appropriate information to students.
- Lift the Hold when appropriate and return to regular school operations.

Staff

- Hold students in your classroom. Allow students or staff to enter who need to clear the hallway or area.
- Close the door.
- Take attendance; note the time and any missing or extra people.
- Continue teaching; business as usual.
- Be aware and prepared to LOCKDOWN, if directed.
- Until Hold is lifted, stay in your classroom or area with your students.

Students

- Return to your classroom or area and stay there.
- Follow staff directions.
- Until Hold is lifted, stay in your classroom or area.

- Coordinate with law enforcement and be prepared to LOCKDOWN, if needed.
- Do not let anyone enter or leave the building unless authorized to do so.
- Notify Superintendent to coordinate logistics and communication.
- Provide periodic updates to staff and appropriate information to students.
- When directed, lift the Lockout and return to regular school operations.

Staff

- Bring students indoors immediately.
- Take attendance; note the time and any missing or extra people.
- Continue teaching; business as usual.
- Be aware and prepared to LOCKDOWN, if directed.

Students

- Get indoors immediately
- Follow staff directions
- Continue learning; business as usual

Armed Intruder continued...

SHELTER:

HAZARD AND SAFETY STRATEGY

INITIATE THE SHELTER PROTOCOL IN THE EVENT OF SEVERE WEATHER, SUCH AS A TORNADO, OR IF THERE IS SOMETHING HAZARDOUS IN THE ENVIRONMENT, SUCH AS A CHEMICAL SPILL NEARBY.

Principal

- Announce clearly and slowly and repeat the hazard and safety strategy. For example, “Attention students and staff, the National Weather Service has issued a tornado warning. At this time, everyone needs to move to your shelter area.” - pause - “We are under a tornado warning. Move to your shelter area now.”
- Bring students and staff indoors immediately.
- Activate Incident Command System, establish a command post, and delegate tasks to key staff.

- Activate Incident Command System, establish a command post, and delegate tasks to key staff.
- Coordinate with law enforcement.
- Assign someone to monitor video surveillance system.
- Notify District Safety Coordinator to coordinate logistics and communication.
- Provide periodic updates to staff and appropriate information to students. You may be able to update staff via email if you are in a position to do so safely.
- If and when directed by law enforcement, go door to door with law enforcement to unlock each door.

Staff

- Direct all students in hallways, bathrooms, and common areas into safe, lockable rooms immediately. If a lockable room is not available, students may need to self-evacuate.
- Close and lock classroom doors.
- Turn off lights.
- Go to the classroom safe zone. Stay low and out of sight, away from windows and doors.
- Keep students calm and quiet.
- Turn off or silence phones so they do not show light or make sound.
- If the fire alarm sounds, stay in your classroom unless you see fire or smoke is filling your classroom. If you must EVACUATE due to a fire or smoke, consider using an alternate door, window, or any other exterior exit.
- Assure students who want to contact their families that the principal will update families as soon as possible and that they may use their phones to text families, with your permission, once the situation stabilizes.
- Take attendance; note the time and any missing or extra people.
- Prepare to defend
- Do not open the door for anyone. Law enforcement will unlock each door when it is safe.

- Prepare to defend.
- Do not open the door for anyone. Law enforcement will unlock each door.
- If you're outside when a Lockdown is announced, move to your school's evacuation site and wait there for directions.

EVACUATE:

TO ANNOUNCED LOCATION

TYPICAL CAUSES FOR AN EVACUATION INCLUDE THE DETECTION OF SMOKE OR FIRE OR A SUSPECTED GAS LEAK.

Principal

- Announce clearly and slowly and repeat: “Attention students and staff, at this time you need to calmly and quickly Evacuate to [location].” - pause - “Evacuate to [location].”

4. Keep any objects you can between you and the hostile person(s) while in the building.
5. Use trees, vehicles or any other object(s) to block you from view as you run.
6. When away from the immediate area of danger, summon help any way you can and warn others.
7. If you are in a classroom escape through a window if able. If necessary, break the window. The weakest spot on the window is the corner.
8. Once outside the building students and teachers should head to the established rallying point which is the Panther Den – 601 Mark St N.
9. Staff should now take attendance of their assigned homerooms so we can determine who is accounted for.
10. Parents will park along the road next to the Panther Den for reunification with their child(ren). Law Enforcement will instruct us when it is ok to release students to their parents.

Hide

1. Barricade yourself and students in (and the intruder out of) the rooms you are in at the time of the threatening activity provided it is a semi-secure location.
2. Barricade the door with tables, desks, and chairs from the inside.
3. Keep your door locked at all times.
4. Silence mobile devices. Stay away from windows, and stay calm and quiet.

Fight

1. As a last resort and only when your life is in imminent danger, fight back.
2. Attempt to incapacitate the shooter - act with physical aggression and throw items at the active threat (i.e., coffee mug, pens, books).
3. Create noise, movement, distance, and distraction with the intent of reducing the intruder's ability to do harm or shoot accurately. By creating a dynamic environment, it decreases the chances of the intruder shooting accurately. Although fighting an active shooter is not encouraged, when confronted with a life or death situation individuals should use any actions necessary to defend themselves.

Bomb Threat Overview

Reporting Procedure

- The primary goal in regard to bomb threats is to protect human life. All bomb threats shall be treated as authentic meaning an investigation will be conducted.
- Person receiving a threat, either by phone or by any other means of communications, indicating a bomb or bomb threat shall immediately notify the principal or designee.
- If a bomb threat is received via the telephone, proceed as follows:
 - Do not hang up. Immediately notify someone else to call 911 (Police Communication Center) on another phone. This will notify the Police/Sheriff and Fire Department. Law enforcement personnel will immediately discuss with the Fire Department officials the need to dispatch fire/rescue vehicles. After obtaining as much information as possible through the use of the Bomb Threat, place your receiver on the desk and leave it there.
 - The person calling shall give 911 Communication Center personnel the phone number over which the threat was received as well as the caller identification number noted on the Caller ID screen and should be prepared to answer questions relating to the caller's voice characteristics. (I.E., sex, age, excitement level, language group, speech peculiarities, and any distinguishable background sounds.) Refer to Threat/Incident Reporting Form.
 - Do not allow anyone except a police officer or school official to replace the receiver on the phone. The receiver will be replaced after the call is traced.
 - Notify the Superintendent or designee.
- If a bomb threat is received via a written message of any type, school staff need to preserve it for law enforcement officers. The site of the message and the written message itself needs to be handled as little as possible.
- If a threat is sent via social media, text, or email, school staff need to document it for law enforcement officers (example: photograph, screen shot, etc.)
- Law enforcement role once the call comes in on 911.
 - A search will be completed.
- All bomb threats should be reported to the police department even if they are believed to be a hoax. This information can be valuable to law enforcement officials in stopping such calls. Law enforcement personnel will consult with school officials in determining how to address the bomb threat.

Visual Inspection by School Personnel

After being notified of a threat, the principal and police personnel shall determine whether, and the extent to which, a visual inspection is necessary as part of an investigation. If the principal and/or police determine that a visual inspection is necessary, the principal may conduct a visual inspection. He/she may request that school staff assist him/her in a visual inspection of the building or identified areas. Employees are usually familiar enough with their own work areas that they should be able to note any changes in condition or detect any suspicious objects. Except when not possible, a visual inspection should be conducted prior to evacuating the building. An email, indicating the need for a visual inspection, will be used as notification to minimize anxiety. Upon reading the email, do not alert students. Allow the learning environment to be “business as usual” as much as possible.

What to Look for:

- Anything that would look out of place in the areas which you are providing a visual inspection
 - Example: 2” x 12” piece of pipe in a library or office.
 - 8” x 10” x 12” package in restroom, briefcase, or suitcase any place in a building.

Where to Look:

- All accessible areas
- A place out of sight, where a bomb can be left without being noticed.
 - Wastebaskets in restrooms
 - Any room within a building where there is access
 - Stairways or stairwells
- The outside perimeter of the building should be searched.

How to Look:

- Travel alone.
- Keep people separated, so that only one person is involved. This will make it possible to cover all of a facility in a shorter period of time.
- Instruct all personnel who will take part in a visual inspection not to handle anything suspicious, who to notify if an object is found, the method of alerting, and areas of responsibility.
- Do not use radios or radio equipment.

Notification and Procedures to Follow if Suspicious Object is Located in Building

- The principal or his/her designee should be notified immediately of any suspicious object.
- When an object has been located and is known not to have been there previously or the object is suspicious, inasmuch as it cannot be accounted for or identified, an immediate evacuation of the facility will follow via the school's all-call system.
 - The building administrator and police will determine when to terminate the visual inspection.
- Suspicious object(s) shall remain undisturbed and not touched. If an object has been positively identified by representatives of law enforcement, a determination will be made as to its removal. The area where a suspicious object has been identified should be secured by an administrator or designee until the arrival of emergency personnel.

NOTE: THE SUPERINTENDENT OR DESIGNEE SHOULD BE THE ONLY SOURCE OF INFORMATION TO THE PRESS.

Evacuation for Bomb Threat

Evacuation

In the event of a bomb threat, which is not believed to be a hoax (bomb located or other just causes), the building should be evacuated immediately. The decision whether to evacuate and re-enter the building is the responsibility of the building administrator who consults with law enforcement and district office building administration.

Evacuation Announcement:

The Administration/Crisis Team or secretary from the office or LMC announces:

“There is a (describe emergency) in the area of_____. Move away from and avoid that area. Evacuate the building and go to student rally locations_____ and_____.”

NOTIFY DISTRICT STAFF/STUDENTS IN AREAS WITH POOR OR NO COMMUNICATIONS: EX: THOSE OUTSIDE OF THE BUILDING, ARRIVING TRANSPORTATION, ETC.

- If evacuation is needed, the same procedures used for fire drills should be utilized. Police assistance should be requested.
 - Predetermined emergency routes should be followed. Have occupants of the facility listen for special instructions on PA system/phone speakers if available or by voice from those in charge.
 - Leave as quickly as possible and move to a location a reasonable distance away from the building as designated in advance by principal or his/her designee.
 - Aid all building visitors.
 - Discourage panic.
 - Teachers should take their class lists. Teachers are responsible for students that are with them at the time of evacuation. Staff not assigned students should assist those assigned to students. It is critical that all students be accounted for as part of the evacuation.
 - Law enforcement officers will provide traffic control.
- After the building has been evacuated, a more complete visual inspection will be conducted under the direction and with assistance of the law enforcement and fire department services (when appropriate).
- Do not re-enter the building until law enforcement personnel declares emergency is over.
- Each school should identify and confirm location to take students to should the evacuation be prolonged. Areas should be identified to spread students around in a safe manner. Caution should be exercised not to have students stand outside immediately next to the school building.
- Arrangements need to be made in advance for addressing the needs of students with disabilities.
- Students being held in evacuation sites will be released to only their parent/guardian unless written permission is provided by the parent/guardian.

Evacuation for Bomb Threat continued...

- Key building staff such as custodians and administrators should be readily identifiable by law enforcement officers.
- School and Emergency Management Establish Command Post
 - School, police, fire and emergency management move to Command Post. Review situation and begin to mitigate emergency.
- The school gym or auditorium may be appropriate evacuation sites in some circumstances following the proper inspection.

Restoration

- Administration directs restoration through appropriate personnel: Local law enforcement, Crisis Team, Counselors, Buildings & Grounds, School Board, School Attorneys, Business Office, etc.
- Emphasis on helping students and staff recover. Repair and restore building to original condition.

Prevention

- Rooms should be locked at all times.
- Keep all unused rooms, closets, storage areas and areas of limited use, locked at all times to minimize the search area.
- Teachers should check room on arrival in morning, or upon return to room during day, and report to principal any unusual circumstances.
- Teachers should stay in rooms until all students leave, then lock the door upon departure.
- Custodians should secure rooms after cleaning.
- Keep all exits, passageways, and doors easily accessible for immediate evacuation if necessary
- Do not obstruct any passageway or door for any reason.

Training

- All employees will receive training on general bomb threat procedures and how to conduct a visual inspection yearly.

Bomb Threat Form

Following an appropriate investigation, the Threat/Incident Reporting Form (Appendix P) must be finalized with a copy kept by the principal and school resource officer. A copy should be emailed to the Director of Buildings and Grounds/Safety Coordinator.

NOTE: THE SUPERINTENDENT OR DESIGNEE SHOULD BE THE ONLY SOURCE OF INFORMATION TO THE PRESS.

Tornado Drill Script

Information: Tornado Watch/Warning Drill

The School District of West Salem cooperates annually with the La Crosse County Emergency Government and the Department of Public Instruction by participating in a stateside Tornado Watch/Warning Drill in April. These procedures are followed:

12:07 p.m. - An announcement will be made over the intercom that a “simulated” tornado watch has been issued for our area. Teachers should take a few moments to review drill procedures. Please have those ready. Our building procedure is outlined in the Emergency Procedures for the building. (A copy should also be in your email).

12:55 p.m. - An announcement will be made over the intercom that a “simulated” tornado warning has been issued for our area; all staff and students need to move to their designated areas immediately. Remember to move with your class, take your attendance list, and close your door when you leave. Please also remember to move your class into the appropriate areas. Please be sure faculty and staff are not congregated in one area...leaving some areas unsupervised. Students, we will move directly to “X” period after the drill.

1:08 p.m. - The “all clear” will be given from the office announcing the end of the drill. Students and staff will be dismissed to their “X” period classes.

The Script:

12:07 p.m. Beginning of “X” hour - Tornado Drill Introduction:

Good afternoon. Today is the Statewide Tornado Drill. Today we will practice what we will do if there is the threat of dangerous weather. In the event a Tornado Watch has been issued for our area, we will announce to inform everyone that there is the potential for dangerous weather. If a Tornado Warning is issued, we will announce at that time for you to move to your designated Tornado shelter area.

We begin the drill by announcing that the National Weather Service has notified us that the La Crosse area is under a Tornado Watch. A Tornado Watch is issued when conditions are favorable for the formation of tornados. A Tornado Warning is issue when an actual tornado has been sighted in an area. Teachers, please take a few moments to share with your students the procedures we will follow if a Tornado Warning is issued. Should conditions change to warrant a Tornado Warning, we will keep you informed.

12:55 p.m. - Tornado Warning Announcement:

The National Weather Service has notified us that a “mock” tornado warning has been issued for our area. Teachers, please gather your students and lead them to your designated tornado location at this time.

1:08 p.m. - Tornado Drill Conclusion:

The National Weather Service has canceled the “mock” Tornado Warning. You are now dismissed.

Recovery

After a disaster, local governments assess community needs and determine the actions required to return the community to a state of normalcy. The local emergency manager, working with the assessor's office and public works department, is usually charged with assessing damages, tabulating losses to businesses and homeowners and estimating needed repairs. Similarly, the school district is responsible for assessing needs of its affected buildings after a disaster or traumatic event. There are three critical key components of recovery in a school setting:

- Physical/structural recovery
- Academic recovery
- Social/emotional recovery

Often disasters and traumatic events affecting schools involve several of these components.

Recovery

Recovery is an important part of a district emergency plan. Staff involved with recovery planning may differ from those participating in preparedness or response planning. A recovery team should include people who have responsibilities and expertise in the four key recovery components. Core team members should include those at the district level who are in charge of facilities, curriculum and instruction, pupil services, business and finance, and administration. Other key members could include a teacher representative, Manager of Community Relations and other community organizations or resourcees.

Key Recovery Components

Physical/Structural Recovery

Ensuring the safety and usability of a building is the primary goal of physical and structural recovery. Physical damages must be assessed to determine the cost and feasibility of repairing or replacing structures or contents. For a school, buildings and grounds personnel working with the district business/risk manager and insurance carrier would most likely often perform this function.

Physical recovery planning considerations

- Assess the building structure. Depending on the scope of the damages, inspections by a third party may be necessary.
- Provide for temporary relocation of classes or activities if damages require extensive repair or rebuilding.
- Resume transportation and food service. Reroute buses if necessary and possibly reconfigure drop off zones. If the cafeteria is affected, look at alternative areas for food service and inspection by health authorities.
- Assess damages or replacement of furniture, equipment and supplies (desks, books, computers, gym equipment, labs, teacher supplies, etc).
- Clean up damaged facilities. Determine who will do it, how soon, and who pays.

Recovery

Physical damages may also be linked to social/emotional needs. For example, in a school shooting, if deaths or injuries occurred in a certain room, the school may decide to not use the room again due to the extreme trauma associated with that room even if it was cleaned and repaired.

Academic Recovery

Restoring the structure and routine of learning is the goal of academic recovery. Returning to the normal school day enhances the healing process. While changes in routine may occur due to the disaster or emergency, staff, students, and families working through the event will create a new “normal.”

Planning for academic recovery involves personnel in curriculum, public information (communications), technology (IT), transportation, food service, health & safety, buildings and grounds, administration and teaching. Plans for academic recovery involve short and long-term considerations.

Short-term planning considerations:

- Resume classes as soon as possible. Determine who makes the decision, what factors might affect the date/time and method for returning and how the information is communicated to staff, students, and families.
- Modify the academic routine as needed. Modifications may be necessary if buildings have been significantly damaged and cannot be used safely. Also consider the social/emotional needs of students and staff as they learn how to cope with results of the disaster.
- Replace academic materials, supplies, and equipment if necessary for class resumption. Involve teaching staff, business manager and buildings and grounds personnel in developing lists of “needed” and “wanted” items.
- Communicate regularly with staff. Hold briefings for all staff supplemented by emails and printed materials. Staff will need to be aware of modifications made to the regular routine, provisions of counseling services and communications sent to students’ homes.
- Communicate with parents or guardians. Determine what information is needed and how the information will be communicated (i.e. meetings, phone, website, letter, email).

Long-term planning considerations

- Arrange for homebound instruction or tutoring services for students unable to attend school.
- Rearrange or reschedule tests or assignments if necessary due to physical limitations of the building, loss of instruction time or lack of necessary materials.
- Allow for periodic visits to counseling services.

Recovery

Social/Emotional Recovery

The goal of emotional recovery is to promote coping and resiliency for students, staff and their families following a disaster or traumatic event. According to the National Institute of Mental Health, both children and adults demonstrate a wide range of reactions after a catastrophic event including physical, cognitive, and emotional symptoms. For some, adverse effects lessen with emotional support and the passage of time. Others are more deeply affected and experience longer-term consequences. It is important to know that these emotional reactions are normal responses to an abnormal event.

Planning for social/emotional recovery is the responsibility of student support staff (nurses, school social workers, counselors, school psychologists) working with teachers, school administrators, and key community mental health agencies. This planning involves establishing partnerships and developing agreements between the school and community agencies, providing training for staff and recommending policies for school board consideration. Community-based resources need to be identified before an emergency or disaster so they are available for families needing assistance.

Social/emotional recovery planning considerations

- Assess emotional needs of students and staff. Determine who will do this and how teachers, school resource officers and others can help identify students in need of assistance.
- Organize emotional support systems with student support services personnel district-wide. Establish partnerships with community mental health agencies and faith groups.
- Promote messages of resiliency and hope. Work with communications and district leadership to prepare messages, arrange parent meetings, provide fact sheets and web based materials.
- Train staff to recognize symptoms of extreme stress in children. Schools may want to provide a class on Psychological First Aid or similar curriculum and involve community agencies.
- Determine intervention methods for students, staff and families in need of emotional support. Plan for student support services staff availability, method of referral to community agencies, allotment of time with counselors and ongoing assessment for longer term support.
- Plan for memorials. Make pre-disaster recommendations for spontaneous memorials (flowers, posters, stuffed animals, etc.) and prepare district response to requests for permanent memorials. Plan for first anniversary events and consider holding events during the school year that allow students to express themselves.

Recovery

Recovery Communications

Many school stakeholders including staff, parents, students and vendors need information after an emergency response is over. Communication is key to getting timely, accurate information to a wide variety of audiences.

When the school is actively responding to an emergency, the District Designated Media Contact works closely with the media to coordinate statements and press releases with emergency responders. During recovery, the District Designated Media Contact works with school administrators and recovery team members to plan for the school's continuing communication with internal and external audiences.

Timeliness and accuracy are critical in disseminating recovery messages and controlling rumors. The district may also want to designate one phone number for all "recovery" calls and provide and/or provide an email contact on their website for recovery inquiries. Communications staff can monitor information trends coming from these inquiries to help identify rumors and possible misinformation so corrective messages can be sent out immediately.

Recovery communication considerations:

- Identify and prioritize stakeholders and their need for information from the school.
- Consider internal and external audiences, the kind of information each will need and the form and method of delivery used. Set up news briefings and parent meetings when necessary.
- Determine authorship of communications from school administrators or subject matter experts (i.e. school psychologist, transportation coordinator).
- Identify information audiences may need. Consult with recovery team members to select formats and methods for dissemination.
- Update the school or district website, voice mails, messages to parents and frequently asked questions in a timely manner.
- Provide resources. Determine who will answer recovery calls and respond to email inquiries, add links to outside resources on the school's website and communicate information about school-based resources.
- Control rumors. Track down rumors and misinformation. Respond with corrections.
- Convey messages of resilience and a return to normalcy.

Communications may be very active in the first few days after a major emergency. The need for communications changes over time as the recovery process is put into place. There may be a need for periodic messages dealing with school changes and methods to help children cope. Communications and other recovery team members should plan together for anniversaries of major, traumatic events.

Recovery

Behavioral Health Crisis Intervention

Behavioral Health Crisis Intervention is the first step in assisting students, staff and parents with their social/emotional recovery. School behavioral health teams perform these actions during the first 48-72 hours after a traumatic event in the school.

When an emergency occurs:

Building administration and student support services

- Evaluate the situation and determine the need for behavioral health crisis interventions for staff, students and families.
- Provide grief counseling as necessary.
- Arrange for information and referrals to community mental health resources.
- Ensure ongoing support for staff, students and families.
- Identify and monitor at-risk students.
- Follow-up with assessment or treatment referrals, if necessary.
- Implement longer-term social/emotional recovery plan.

Staff

- Be aware of staff and student need for behavioral health crisis interventions.
- Make referrals to designated staff professionals as necessary.
- Identify, monitor and refer students (or other staff) at risk.
- Re-establish school and classroom routines as quickly as possible.
- Facilitate opportunities for students to talk about their fears or concerns. Communicate a positive “I’m not helpless” attitude.

Each school district should identify a 24-hour contact person or agency responsible for behavioral health crisis assessment and intervention in the community or region.

Indicators or Symptoms of Distress in Children

As a result of traumatic experiences, children may exhibit a variety of symptoms of distress. Knowing a child's baseline or typical behavior is critical to identifying unusual or problematic behaviors in the child. The following symptoms, if uncharacteristic, may indicate a child is experiencing distress.

Symptoms

- Unusual complaints of illness
- Isolation from the rest of the group
- Acting out
- Changes in behavior and/or appearance
- Refusing to open up; no eye contact
- Difficulty concentrating and focusing in class
- Emotional displays
- Lack of emotional expression
- Poorer performance
- Lethargic or apathetic
- Easily startled, jumpy

How Teachers Can Assist Students

Children may have difficulty understanding that certain events cannot be controlled or predicted and the adults in their lives cannot always “fix” problems or keep them from happening again. Listed below are some ways teachers and other school staff can help students deal with trauma and the distress or difficult emotions that may result.

- Cope with your own feelings of helplessness, fear, and anger.
- Learn to recognize signs and symptoms of distress in children.
- Give children opportunities to talk-then listen to them.
- Help children put the emergency or disaster in context. Provide a perspective.
- Communicate a positive “I’m not helpless” attitude.
- Help children to feel safe and secure.
- Identify children who seem particularly distressed-those who don’t seem to be progressing emotionally after a few weeks. Refer them to school support staff for follow up.

Recovery

Dealing with the Aftermath

Emergencies can have a long-lasting impression on staff, students, and parents, presenting the need for long-term counseling and other actions. It is the responsibility of the administration and staff to be on the alert for those individuals that have been affected and need counseling so that appropriate referrals can be made to the school's student services staff and/or community agencies. Immediately after an emergency, follow these procedures:

- The principal in consultation with their Superintendent or designee will determine dismissal and/or remainder of the day schedule. Those individuals that have been directly involved with the crisis situation will meet with the principal in a debriefing meeting followed by a general announcement to the student body and faculty.
- Security measures, if needed, will be investigated by the principal and implemented. This sometimes eases the fear and concerns that others have.
- A specific location in the school will be assigned as a place for counseling along with the time and date that counseling will be available. For those directly affected by the emergency, counseling will be provided prior to leaving the campus.
- Following the emergency, debriefing sessions will be provided as well as long-term counseling determined by the needs of individuals.
- If applicable, the room where the event took place will be repainted and rearranged before any class meets there. This often reduces fears and phobias of being in the same place.
- Schedule changes for those affected will be investigated. If determined appropriate, the principal/designee will complete schedule changes.
- A letter from the principal will be sent home with the students clarifying the situation and focusing on the positive. If appropriate, a follow-up letter will be mailed in one week. This will be done in conjunction with the District Designated Media Contact. An emergency faculty meeting will be held for debriefing prior to dismissal the day of the crisis.
- The Building Safety Team will meet to evaluate the entire emergency.

Recovery

Debriefing

Debriefing sessions are recommended for individuals who were more directly involved in the emergency event by either witnessing it or who assisted in resolving the emergency (i.e. rescue, first aid, disarming an intruder). Adhering to the following guidelines is suggested.

- Use professional service providers that were not associated with the emergency. The principal in collaboration should coordinate arrangements for these services with the appropriate District staff.
- Use a room that is large enough to hold a maximum of thirty individuals. Arrange the furniture in a circle so everyone can see each other.
- Schedule at least three debriefing sessions. The first session is to be scheduled within twenty-four hours of the emergency.
- Use the first session to allow each person to express his/her feelings about the emergency.
- Allow only one person to talk at a time, but encourage total participation.
- Establish three rules:
 - No one is to criticize what another says, but to listen and find common reactions, feelings, and fears.
 - Anything said is confidential.
 - All questions will be answered.
- Subsequent sessions should be based on:
 - Common reactions
 - Stress indicators
 - Reactions to emergency
 - Coping mechanisms
 - Stress reduction techniques
 - Referral information
